Oxford University Careers Service

WHAT CAN STUDENTS, POSTGRADUATES, POSTDOCS, AND ALUMNI DO TODAY?

1. Improve EMPLOYABILITY skills through Oxford’s unique range of programmes.

   - The Oxford Strategy Challenge and the Student Consultancy: consulting projects with local businesses
   - Summer Internship Programme: exclusive 2-12 weeks placements in the long vacation
   - Micro Internships: 2-5 day voluntary, full time work experiences
   - The Promentor Programme: mentoring by Oxford alumni exclusively for first year UGs on bursaries
   - The Crankstart Internship and Mentoring Programme: support for Oxford Crankstart Scholars
   - ‘Insight into...’ programmes for Strategy and Management, Medicine, Pharma/Biotech, Publishing, and Teaching

2. Discuss OPTIONS with Careers Advisers, explore OPPORTUNITIES with employers, take ACTION and apply for jobs.

   - Over 5,500 1:1 appointments each year with experienced, impartial careers advisers
   - Over 10,000 vacancies; back to pre-pandemic numbers
   - Specialist careers advisers deliver targeted resources for disabled students
   - Dedicated support programmes for researchers and PostDocs
   - Over 120 employer events each year
   - 8 careers fairs per year with hundreds of exhibitors
   - Start-Up Visa Endorsement for applicants whose business proposals demonstrate innovation, viability, and scalability

   - CareerConnect, the Careers Service’s platform for events, vacancies, appointments, and internships
   - The key careers resource for students and grads, the yearly Oxford Guide to Careers, created by the Oxford University staff
   - Career Weaver: web-based app to help students identify and articulate their work preferences, motivations, and skills
   - Graduate destination data available online, by dept/faculty, gender, and subject
   - More career resources available on the Careers Service website

Who the Careers Service supports

- The Careers Service supports all 12,510 undergraduate students, 13,044 graduate students at Oxford.
- The Careers Service’s dedicated support extends to more than 5,800 research and research support staff.
- Oxford alumni can engage with the Careers Service for LIFE through access to 1:1 sessions with careers advisers, jobs board, careers fairs, workshops, and more.
- Each college, department and faculty has a careers adviser dedicated to them.
- Student societies can engage with the Service by advertising opportunities, attending a careers fair, co-host events, and more.

CONTACT US:
hello@careers.ox.ac.uk
01865 274646
56 Banbury Road, Oxford, OX2 6PA
www.careers.ox.ac.uk

Click the boxes for links to more information